THE WISE MEN OF THE NATION WHO ARE FINAL ARBITERS OF ITS FATE

Louis Dembitz Brandeis   Owen J. Roberts   Willis Van Devanter   Pierce Butler   Charles Evans Hughes   Harlan F. Stone   James Clark McReynolds   Benjamin N. Cardozo   George Sutherland

The Supreme Court—now very much in the public eye—has settled in the past cases of great moment, as the Dred Scott case and the Dartmouth College case. The latest vital case to come before it has been to decide whether or not Congress acted unconstitutionally in abrogating the clause in many bonds and contracts guaranteeing payment in gold or its equivalent. Because of the importance of this decision the eyes of the Nation have been centred on these nine great judges.

At the head of the Supreme Court is the venerable Charles Evans Hughes of New York, 72 years old, who has had a long and brilliant legislative career, crowned by his appointment as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in February, 1930, by the then President Hoover. He is seated in the centre of the front row.

On his left is James Clark McReynolds, also 72, of Kentucky. He has been an Associate Justice since 1914.

Front row, at right, is Associate Justice George Sutherland, 72, and born in England. His appointment dates from 1922.

Seated, at left, is Associate Justice Louis Dembitz Brandeis, of Boston, 78, who was born in Kentucky. He entered the court in 1916.

Second from left, seated, is Willis Van Devanter, 75, born in Indiana, and since 1910 a court member.

Standing, top left, is Owen Josephus Roberts, born at Philadelphia. He is the court "youngster," being 59, and well remembered as prosecutor in the 1924 Teapot Dome scandals. He has been an Associate Justice since 1930.

Second at top left, Pierce Butler, 68, hailing from Minnesota. His appointment was qualified in 1923.

Third from left, standing, Harlan Fiske Stone, 62, born in New Hampshire. President Coolidge appointed him to the court in 1925.

Last, top right, Benjamin Nathan Cardozo, a New Yorker, is 64. He is the youngest court member in point of service, appointed in 1932.

The youngest in years is Owen J. Roberts, 58; the oldest member is Louis D. Brandeis, 78.

Wisdom, experience and knowledge of law are the tools of these nine Supreme Court members, soon to be housed in a beautiful and dignified building of their own at Washington.

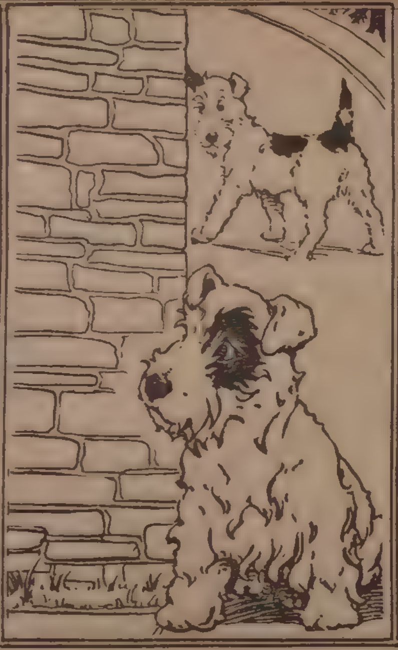
Nip and Tuck

A Couple Pups for Whom Life Is One Long Laugh

By Bess Goe Willis

Maybe you'll learn not to chew up shoes. Then you won't have to sit in the corner as a punishment.



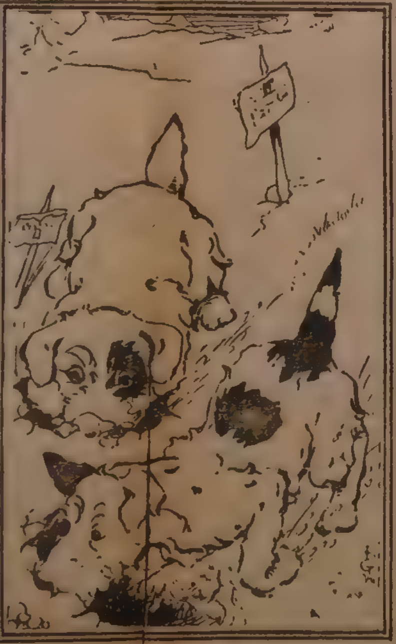
G'wan home, Tuck. The boss is late, and I'm worried. I'll just wait here for him.

Now we've done it. Gee, what a crash that stuff made!

Ring around rosy. Here's where we give him the whirligig.

Copyright by Public Ledger, Inc

I'll stand for just so much, and then I'll have to do something to put an end to that tail-pulling.



Wonder if the lady was burying bones when she was digging here, Tuck? Let's find out.

Who Said It First? (Hobby Horse)

A Word That Came From No Nursery

Does Tommy know why it is a "hobby horse"?

HOBBY HORSE (n). A stick, often with head of horse, on which boys make believe to ride.

Hobba, in the Icelandish language, means a mare. The term "hobby" was, a century ago, given to Irish or Scotch horses of hardy breed, some of which were kept in the Royal stables for odd jobs. In the London Chronicle of Dec. 7, 1788, is the following, which gives the date of George the Third's first attack of mental derangement.

> "Hurst, the hobby groom, is this moment sent as fast as possible to bring Mr. Dundas (the medical gentleman attending His Majesty) from Richmond."

A "hobby" was usually the favorite horse upon which gentlemen rode about their estates, and the word easily adapted itself to the meaning which it at present holds in the language.

American Brigantines Sent North for a Purpose

IF ONE MISSION FAILED, WAR COULD ALWAYS PRODUCE ANOTHER

HOW TO SOLVE THE HISTORICAL PUZZLE

Eager to intercept a British brigantine, Washington sent cruisers to the St. Lawrence.

Failing in the task assigned them, the American naval men landed on the Island of St. John. What they did there you may learn by working the puzzle.

The numbers on picture at right reveal what occurred in the following way: Each group of numbers stands for the letters that spell the name or characteristic of the object on which they are printed or to which they point. For example, 81, 58, 12, 92 stand for the word HARE.

Place the letters that spell HARE in the squares of the chart above the picture, placing each letter in the square below the corresponding number, as—81(H), 58(A), 12(R), 92(E).

Now discover what the other number groups spell and place those letters in the proper squares above as you did with the word HARE. When all the number groups are solved the chart discloses what happened at the island of St. John.

Another picture crossword puzzle for your pencil next Sunday.

A Picture Brings Home the Bacon

BARTER BLOSSOMS OUT in Paris. For the fourth consecutive year Paris artists are holding their "barter salon," where anything at all may be traded for works of art. Here a farmer with esthetic yearnings trades a pig for a landscape, and that brings home the bacon for the artist if no other picture ever did. (Acme.)

MAKEUP

takes a new turn in Hollywood. Raymond Lopez, makeup artist, claims that since the film registers in black and white, black and white should be used for makeup rather than flesh tints. (Wide World.)

BROOKLINE SISTERS

Barbara and Constance Campbell, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Neal Campbell of Brookline, Mass, pose for Eric Burtis, San Francisco sculptor, at Pancoast Hotel, Miami Beach, Fla. (Acme.)

ONE-TWO, ONE-TWO, called out Max Baer, world's heavyweight champ, as he gave punch lessons to bathing beauties; but it looks as if Max will have to count up to six for this handsome class. All of the fun and instruction was at Virginia Beach, Virginia, where the sun shineth and the snow snoweth not. (Acme.)
